Around the Square

An insidious subversive threat was being checked this week in—of all places—our own Kiwanis Club. Apparently, it has been learned by leaders of the club that there is at least one "rotten apple" in the barrel—that is, a Communist.

At any rate, loyalty oaths were sent to the homes of all Kiwanis Club members Monday—you know, those glowing documents which are supposed to protect commies.

Checking rapidly over the roster, we are unable to believe disloyalty of any of its members.

By late Wednesday afternoon, not even one teeny-weensy Communist had been "unearthed" in the purge.

With several visits this week from political candidates, we know the election campaign is getting into high gear. Invariably, it's the same old story.

Depending on their party lineup, candidates will continue to either "point with pride" or "view with alarm" until the final showdown in November.

Added this week to the small menagerie of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller were 1100 angle worms. The Millers eventually hope to raise the "red-earth" variety worms for commercial use. Right now, however, the 100 breeders and 1000 "babies" are happily living in two old nail kegs.

Even off-duty hours can be dangerous, observed Police Officer William Mackie Tuesday, rubbing his neck.

"It was a bee," he complained. "I was riding my motorcycle when the darn thing got inside my collar. All I could do was stop as soon as possible. It already was too late."

COMPLAINT DEPARTMENT: Why don't utilities companies make out their bills and statements so the lay person of average intelligence can understand them. Always left in our mind after scanning a bill is this routine, but nice-to-know question: "What are we paying for?"

City Postal Receipts In Steady Rise

Postal receipts continued their steady upward trend last month, with Sierra Madre Postmaster Eddie D. Robertson reporting an increase of 39.8 per cent over July of last year.

He said receipts last month totaled $6805.31—$1924.66 more than the $4880.65 recorded for July, 1949.

Cancellations also continued to mount, with 236,311 reported for last month, as compared with 186,656 cancellations in July of last year.

Council Continues Hearing on Street Lighting Question

A public hearing to determine the "feasibility" of forming a downtown street lighting district was ordered continued Tuesday night after pros and cons were kicked around for an hour.

Of the 4364 feet of total frontage involved in the proposed street light district, property owners representing approximately only 445 feet entered objections Tuesday night.

Although City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn repeatedly reminded property owners and citizens that the hearing was to determine "only the financial feasibility, rather than the desirability" of the proposed project, the latter aspects were emphasized most.

"We are only trying to see if the district could bear the financial burden of the assessments which would result if the lighting system were approved," he said.

"If the project is found to be feasible," Mr. Cornyn explained, "the Council then sets a public hearing to discuss the costs or other factors."

First letter of protest read at the City Council meeting Tuesday night was from former Mayor J. Milton Steinberger, who charged that "this is a poor time to add to the tax burden something we can do without."

"It is my opinion," wrote Mr. Steinberger, "that adequate lighting in the residential area should be your (the Council's) first consideration."

In answer to Mr. Steinberger and several other citizens who raised the same point, Mayor William A. Kinney said: "The rest of the city will be considered too. We're just starting in the shopping center because a group of property owners there petitioned us to form a special light district."

A letter from Florence M. Belohlavek objected to being included in the proposed district on the grounds that: 1. it would serve no general beneficial service; 2. it would violate her constitutional rights as a property owner in that it would confiscate private property for

New Dentist Brings 25 Years' Experience to Sierra Madre

With the announcement this week of a new professional partnership in Sierra Madre, two long-time personal friends are brought together.

Allan J. Burgess, D. D. S., is associating as a full partner with Dr. John Woehler in the offices located at 17 Suffolk.

The two dentists have long been personal friends and have worked together professionally many times before.

Not only did they both graduate as members of the same class at the University of Southern California, but the two men have been together on many dental programs and teaching clinics for post-graduate dental students during the past 15 years.

Dr. Burgess will be in charge of administering the dental offices, thereby giving Dr. Woehler more time for his teaching duties at USC and Pasadena City College.

Formerly a resident of Los Angeles, Dr. Burgess for the past 11 years has been living

Sea Scouts Launch Ship Shenandoah

The Shenandoah was formally launched last week, and its crew immediately embarked on a short "shake-down" cruise.

The Shenandoah is a 15-foot, 6-inch "Sunray" (class) sail boat—the "ship" of Sierra Madre Sea Scout Ship No. 1.

Local Sea Scouts transported the boat to the Newport Sea Scout Base Sunday morning for its official christening. After last minute rigging preparations, the marconi-rigged sloop was lowered into the waters of Newport shortly before noon.

During the afternoon sail, Scouts were able to view the famous "Flight of the Snowbirds" sailing race with almost ring-side seat ease.

Their initial cruise completed, the Sea Scouts and the Shenandoah returned to Sierra Madre late in the afternoon.

According to Leonard Barrett, a boatswain's mate in the local unit, the boys hope to make Newport Sea Scout Base the permanent port for their boat. Frequent weekend cruises are planned throughout the summer, Barrett said.

He pointed out, however, that the Sierra Madre Sea Scout unit needs additional members to help man and maintain the boat.

The craft's hull and mast were given the boys in March. Funds received from a paper drive and considerable "elbow grease" helped put the boat into shipshape condition.

The sailboat features polished brass fittings and is built from naturally-finished plywood. Sides of the craft are painted white, and the bottom green.

City Nursery School Plans 'Mixer' Party

A "get-acquainted" party will be held tomorrow evening, Aug. 11, to honor parents of children newly-enrolled in the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School.

Purely a social evening of dancing and card games, the event will begin at 8:30. It will take the place of the regular August parent-education and business meeting.

Arrangements for dance music are being made by J. C. Loomis Jr., and Mrs. Marian Gale will be in charge of card-table activities.

The party will be held in the recently-completed Nursery School building at 701 E. Sierra Madre boulevard. All members of the Nursery School Association are urged to attend.

Vernon Gets 50 Days For 'Tampering'

James McIntosh Vernon, Jr. of 411 Sturtevant Drive was fined $100 or 50 days in the county jail in Monrovia Friday for "tampering with a vehicle," a misdemeanor.

Vernon had been arrested Wednesday night and booked in Sierra Madre on suspicion of grand theft auto, a felony.

Arraigned Friday before Judge Podles in Monrovia Justice Court, however, the suspect was formally charged with the lesser offense. By last weekend, Vernon had been unable to raise the $100 fine and was being "boarded" in jail.

The Sierra Madre youth had been arrested by local officers, William Mackie and Paul Bird, following the reported theft of a 1950-model convertible from in front of the Old Adobe. Vernon, who said he borrowed the car "for transportation home," abandoned it at 16 E. Sierra Madre, where he told residents, Mr. and Mrs. John Radford, that "a rat pack" was chasing him.

From the description given by the Radfords and by persons who had seen him at the Old Adobe earlier in the evening, police identified the suspect as Vernon and arrested him at his home.

Elapsed time between the reported car theft, recovery of the car, and arrest of Vernon was approximately one hour.

Lees Reports 9 Home Permits Pace Busy Construction Month

Building permits for nine new homes were taken out last month to help keep Sierra Madre's construction record way ahead of July, 1949.

William Lees, city building inspector, said building permits amounting to $88,475 were issued by him last month to make the total so far this year $756,227.

During July of 1949, $56,300 in permits were taken out, and the "total to date" record read $375,185—less than half the current figures.

Mr. Lees said building permits for more than $500 were issued to the following:

Edward Manthly, to build a garage and apartment at 33 W. Miramonte, a permit for

At a meeting of the Board of Directors Monday night, Chamber President Al E. Morgan said cooperation by merchants was "outstanding" in not parking their cars in the downtown area.

"As a result," he said, "the parking problem in Sierra Madre has been greatly eased."

Mr. Morgan asked, however, that businessmen and women continue to cooperate by keeping their cars on sidestreets and parking lots—instead of in the limited street parking spaces.

VOTERS MAY REGISTER SATURDAY MORNINGS

As a service to Sierra Madreams, a voter-registration table will be manned in the downtown district every Saturday morning until the registration deadline on Sept. 16.

Mrs. Marjorie Rizzo, deputy registrar of voters for the area, said the table would be set up in front of the Bank of Sierra Madre or near the NEWS office.

The service is being offered principally for the convenience of new residents who are not registered to vote in Sierra Madre.

EVENT AUG. 25 WILL PAY TRIBUTE TO FIGHTING MEN

A tribute to the first contingent of Sierra Madre's fighting men called to active service will be paid Friday, August 25, with a dance for the city's National Guard company at the Masonic Temple.

The party-dance will precede by one week the company's leaving for Camp Cooke where they will begin intensive training for a part in the Korean war. Citizens of the entire city will be presenting this "going away" party for the Guardsmen, and Mrs. M. R. de Wright, chairman of the sponsoring committee, said that a fund would be raised for the company's recreation treasury. This fund will be handled by the Red Cross.

The money, to be raised by individual donations, will be used by the Guardsmen for

Coordinating Council Will Meet Tuesday

A meeting of the Coordinating Council has been scheduled for next Tuesday night, Aug. 18, in the City Hall Council Chambers at 8 o'clock.

President Mrs. P. R. Woodworth said means of supporting Sierra Madre's send-off dance for men of the local National Guard Company will be discussed.

She urged Coordinating Council representatives from all Sierra Madre organizations to attend the meeting. Mrs. Woodworth said the delegates will be phoned this week asking cash contributions for the Guard Company from their respective groups.

"We hope to receive most of the donations at the meeting," she said.

The Coordinating Council had not been meeting during the summer months. This special session was called, however, so the Council can speed plans and financial assistance for the farewell party-dance honoring local Guardsmen.

Chamber Votes 'Cooperation' In Guard Party

The Chamber of Commerce Monday night resolved to "give full cooperation" in presenting Sierra Madre's farewell party to the National Guardsmen Friday night, Aug. 25.

In a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors, the Chambermen voted to "do everything possible in making the event a success."

Emile Smith of the Sierra Madre Hardware Store offered to provide tin-can "banks" to be placed in every local store and business establishment. Citizens will be asked to leave cash donations in the "banks" to form a recreation fund for the Guardsmen who report for active duty Sept. 1.

The NEWS offered to print appropriate labels for the "banks," and Harold Stine will be in charge of distributing them around town.

Harrison Named To Library Board

Herbert J. Harrison, 624 Ramona, was appointed to the Sierra Madre Public Library Board Tuesday night by action of the City Council.

Mr. Harrison, a resident of Sierra Madre since 1939, will serve for the full term of three years. He is in the real estate and loan business and is vice-president of the West Coast Bond and Mortgage Company.

Proposed City Budget Presented by Council

The City Council informally presented a preliminary city budget this week, but it is too early to tell what the city tax rate will be.

In completed form, the new budget is expected by Councilmen to be pretty much the same as last year's. By law, the Council must adopt its final budget and set the tax rate per $100 assessed valuation by the end of August.

The total proposed budget, including the water department, is $381,594—more than $150,000 above last year's actual expenditures of $230,378.

This total of $381,594, however, includes state and county gas tax monies totalling $114,710 which are to be spent on street reconstruction and will not be reflected in the tax levy.

Subtracting these gas tax figures, the total tentative city budget becomes $266,884. This represents an increase of $36,466 over actual expenditures of 1949-50.

The water department's budget was estimated at $98,455. It was $74,959 in the adopted budget for 1949-50.

City 'Rescues' Arcadia When Water Fails

Sierra Madre went to the rescue of Arcadia Monday night when that city was faced with an emergency shortage of water.

A total 15,000 cubic feet of Sierra Madre water was pumped over our neighbors to the southeast, when their pumping plant facilities broke down.

City Councilman Herman Barter received a call from Arcadia city officials asking for our help at 7:20 p.m., and, by 7:30, local city employees had connected into Arcadia's water line at Grandview and Santa Anita Drive.

Sierra Madre's aid to Arcadia ended at 11 p.m. when an ailing transformer was repaired. During the three and one-half hours, this city pumped water into an Arcadia reservoir at a rate of 650 gallons a minute.

Last year Sierra Madre pumped water to Arcadia on two or three different occasions when "emergency shortages" were experienced.

Calling All Youngsters:

Day Camp Begins Monday

Day Camp gets underway Monday, Aug. 14, for Sierra Madre youngsters who have completed the first, second and third grades in school.

Activities of the annual City-sponsored camp will start promptly with the registration of boys and girls at 9, according to Samuel E. McElfresh, city recreation director.

First Day Camp will last for one week, with the children meeting daily from 9 to 2 at the Youth Hut. The second camp will be held the following week, Monday, Aug. 21, through Friday, Aug. 25. Children who have completed grades 4, 5 and 6 are invited to take part in this camp.

Mr. McElfresh announced this schedule of an average day's activities during both camps:

9 to 9:30—Opening assembly, flag salute, camp songs.

9:30 to 10—Various age groups meet with counselors.

10—Craft work, hiking, special excursions, games, nature study, educational films, exhibits, or speakers. (Each day will feature a different activity during this period.)

12 to 1—Lunch. Milk on sale at 7 cents a carton.

1 to 2—Quiet period of games and story-telling.

2—Dismissal.

A hike is planned for one day of each camp. Mr. McElfresh said. Youngsters attending the first camp will take their supervised hike on Tuesday. They will be conducted on the trip by Forest Ranger Dick Young, who has promised to give valuable nature study pointers on the way.

In the afternoon, Mr. Young will talk and show pictures on conservation and forest-fire prevention. Real fire-fighting equipment will be dispatched to the Youth Hut to give boys and girls first-hand information.

Trip to Japan

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Kunihiro returned to Sierra Madre Sunday after a three-months' visit to Japan.

The Kunihiros, who live at 190 Merrill, returned aboard the Liner President Cleveland. While in Japan, they visited Tokyo and several other cities of that nation.

Stewart Matter Is Co-Inventor Of New Loudspeaker System

Stewart Matter, 501 Mariposa, is co-inventor of a new low-distortion loudspeaker system—a system which recently went on the market and is winning acclaim from the entire radio world.

The new speaker presents everything from the faintest whisper to a rousing crescendo with a life-like realism. In the case of music, the listener hears every tone and instrument in their proper relation and is able to identify what he hears as if he were sitting in the front row of a concert hall.

Mr. Matter, music authority and critic and director of the Sierra Madre Community Chorus, furnished his musical background and tone perception abilities in helping develop the invention. His partner, James Holl, supplied the engineering know-how.

The local musician points out that other loudspeakers are limited in the degree of accuracy in which they can reproduce various kinds of sound.

Some of these systems sound quite good with music, he said, but the "voice in the barrel" effect is heard when human voices are presented.

Low-distortion Loudspeaking Systems, however, reproduce sound in such a manner that the listener must pause and question himself as to whether or not the performers actually are present or are being faithfully reproduced.

Mr. Matter said the new system pays attention for the first time to the proper matching of the speaker and cabinet enclosure.

"Tests show that the finest loudspeaker available when placed in the incorrect cabinet does not perform as well as a low-cost speaker when correctly installed in a properly-matched cabinet," he said.

The system received "highly favorable response" when presented at the Radio Parts Show in Chicago last May.

The partners currently are finishing work on a new amplifier which they say will be entirely original and superior to existing amplifiers. It will be ready to go on the market within the next week or so, Mr. Matter said.

ST. RITA'S PLANS ANNUAL FIESTA

Plans are going ahead this week for Saint Rita's Annual Fiesta, according to John Woods, Fiesta committee chairman.

Mr. Woods said many outstanding events are being planned, including contests and dinners.

STREET DUMPING LEADS TO EXTRA WORK FOR MAN

Dumping pine needles and dirt on North Michillinda led only to additional work last week for Henry Noel Deutsch of 341 Acacia.

After explaining that dumping all types of refuse or trash on a public street is against the law, City Judge John C. Mead fined Mr. Deutsch $25—but agreed to suspend the fine if he would remove the offending material and "clean-up Michillinda."

Mr. Deutsch agreed to the terms, but observed:

"I don't see why one person, who is open and above board about dumping, must pay for the entire populace who sneak out and do their dumping at night."

Hiker Finds 'Hot' Cigarette Slot Machine

Police this week had a "hot" cigarette-vending machine on their hands with apparently no one willing to claim it.

The machine—minus cigarettes and currency—was found near the Sturtevant Trail Sunday morning by E. N. Voorhees, 58 W. Mira Monte, who was hiking in the area. It had been toppled over the bank approximately 200 feet south of one of the entrances.

A check with Arcadia and Monrovia police departments revealed no one having reported the theft of such a machine. Monday morning, local police put a description of the machine out over their teletype.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Johannes of Long Beach have purchased the property at 32 E. Highland and with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Scherer, moved from Long Beach last week. Mrs. Johannes is an invalid and is hoping that the mountain location will be beneficial to her health.

Mr. Scherer is a teacher in the math department at Loyola High School in Los Angeles. The Scherers have four children who will attend St. Rita's school.

Local Woman Breaks 2 U. S. Pistol Records

Mrs. Margaret Culbertson, 37 W. Grandview, last week competed in the 10th Annual Southwest Pistol Championship Match, breaking two national women's records.

The local woman broke the existing women's .45 caliber rapid-fire record with a 188 score out of a possible 200.

Her second record-breaking effort was in the women's .45 caliber "aggregate" division in which rapid, timed and slow firing scores are combined. Mrs. Culbertson's score in this competition was 819 out of a possible 900.

She also placed fourth in the total aggregate scoring with 2470 out of 2700 points.

In the .22 caliber pistol aggregate expert class, Mrs. Culbertson amassed 852 points out of a possible 900.

During last week's shooting, Mrs. Culbertson earned eight first places and three second places.

Mrs. Culbertson has been match shooting since 1937, but has entered .38 and .45 caliber competitions since only last April. She is a life member of the National Rifleman's Association and holds memberships in the California Rifle and Pistol Association and the Crown City Rifle and Pistol Club.

LOCAL RESIDENTS MINE FOR GOLD ON DAYS OFF

Many people play golf or go fishing on their days off, but Ira Fox and William Cahill have a considerably more spectacular hobby.

It's mining for gold. The two local men have been spending their Sundays, holidays, and days off far below the surface of the earth in a mine owned by Mr. Fox.

"It's a very relaxing and exciting hobby," Mr. Fox remarked this week.

"And," he admitted, "the 'scent' of gold makes it more exciting every foot we go."

He said they estimate that after digging 12 feet more in one direction and 25 feet in another direction, the positive existence of gold will be either confirmed or disproved.

To date, the two businessmen have dug the shaft 75 feet into the earth and have tunneled out 40 feet.

"The mine is located about 140 miles from Sierra Madre," Mr. Fox said guardedly, "north west of Mojave."

The local barber explained that at present they are "cross-cutting"—that is, cutting through a vein.

Much of the progress has been made by blasting and drilling, he said. Included in their equipment is a pneumatic compressor and drill.

DR. MALLEY OPENS LOCAL OFFICES

Dr. Henry A. Malley, D.C., will open offices in the Hotel Patio August 15. Dr. Malley, who has lived in Los Angeles several years, plans to move his family to Sierra Madre as soon as he is established.

Dr. Malley, a native of Lancashire, England, is a graduate of the Livingston Medical College of London and the California Chiropractic College. He served as a medical missionary in New Guinea before coming to the States.

VFW Routs Rangers In 9th Win Of Year

Earning their ninth win this season, against five losses, the Sierra Madre VFW Raiders humbled the Hollywood Rangers Sunday afternoon, 9 to 3.

The victory Sunday was the seventh win in the last eight starts. Pitching the entire game for the Raiders, Steeve held the visiting semi-pro team to three hits. Losing hurler, Shepard, was belted for 10 hits by the Sierra Madreans.

Shortstop Lloyd of the VFW nine socked a homerun with bases loaded to make it the first grand slam homer ever hit at the city ball park. Other four-base hits were collected by Outfielder Frazier of Sierra Madre and Pitcher Shepard of the Rangers.

Injuries continued to plague Raider Manager Larry Shepherd. He reports that Oaks, who last week pitched a shut-out game against El Sombrero, tangled with a saw and will be out of the local lineup for at least a month. Second Baseman Kiggins had stitches removed from his injured hand, but reopened the wound about one hour later.

Next Sunday afternoon will find the Raiders playing the American Pipe team at the city ball park. Game begins at 2:30 p. m.

In games last week, the Sierra Madreans defeated the Pasadena Police Department, 4 to 2, and the Pasadena Eagles Lodge, 3 to 2.

As with the VFW Raiders, their hard-ball-playing brothers, injuries have been hampering the softball nine.

Three men have been sidelined by injuries of various types, and one man is absent because of vacation.

FIRE FLAMES

Your fire fighters live in all sections of the city. It is with great alarm that those who happen to be at the opposite side of the locality of a raging fire, witness the sight.

The distance appears to be doubled or tripled because of anxiety. Driving as fast as possible with safety, the agony piles up when you are blocked by the curious fire followers.

It is readily understandable why a person loves to watch the action of fire as it creeps and destroys, and it must be very amusing to watch how the fire fighters attack.

We are well aware of the many mistakes that are made. We wish we were perfect. We realize that from some of the spectators we hear only praise, while from others, we expect the opposite. It is of great interest to overhear the comments.

It has been the experience of the writer to witness the fighting of many fires during his long life. Some of them were the battles of so-called volunteers, others were fought by professionals. Unless you know the strategy, perhaps judgment should be withheld. Awkwardness prevails. We do not fight fires every day, nor do we have occasion to put out fires each week. If we did—we would develop grace and calm.

We prefer to fight fires before they get started. There is not a soul who can say we are not doing a good job. Every member of the Sierra Madre Fire Department does everything in his power to rid the city of fire hazards and to promote fire prevention.

Speaking of critics—it was amusing to a fire fighter as he stood by and heard a prominent citizen remark that nothing better could be expected of a small town fire department.

Actually, he was poking fun at one of the best fire fighting jobs that a fire department or anyone else could do. It was a fire that attacked beneath the ceiling and the roof. The fire was extinguished without even getting the floors wet of the living room beneath it.

A fine job and a laugh to that critical citizen who made no attempt to aid a few struggling hard working men drag a very heavy hose into the locale of the fire.

Of course, if we were not accustomed to such unreasonable panning, discouragement would undoubtedly demoralize our fire department. So—we say to those who enjoy giving us the "rib," "Go to it!"

The regular drill found the large truck in the vicinity of the extreme north end of Michillinda avenue. A recently-installed fire hydrant close to the end of the street was tested.

Drills are somewhat limited as to amount of water used and therefore not as beneficial. A goodly lot of water can pass through fire hose in a short time. Of course you knew it.

Arriving at the scene of the drill, assistant Chief Norris was gleeful. A long lay of hose was required.

Because the drill was over sooner than planned, George and his crew of adventurers thought a good exploration trip beyond the end of the road would be educational. They learned that it costs money to go beyond the orders of the Chief. The collection box at the meeting was greatly enhanced with their donation.

Vern Udell and Charlie Brown waited patiently for the return of the Norris marauders in order to give their crew a view of the northern lights of Michillinda. When the hour of meeting time approached, they were forced to give up.

V-Ettes Softball Team Will Soon Begin Play-offs

The 15 V-Ettes met last night at the home of Mrs. James C. Heasley Jr., on Victoria, Lane, for a steak barbecue.

Minutes before the regular business session was to come to order—the missing Norrisites (parasites) were still among the absent. It was not because of the hot weather that the Chief broke out in perspiration as he went out in search.

It all ended well, however, when the chief found Harold Spears crawling on his hands and knees in his wife's kitchen. It was here that he found the most soothing salve for an overheated Fire Chief. Mercer Duff who looked as sunburned as the chief also received soothing syrup of a cool nature.

We do not have to wait for the dry season. IT IS HERE. Be careful from here on out. WE MUST keep the FIRES OUT!

New Street Lights Will Pep-Up Downtown Area

With the prospect of 10 acres of the Upper Hastings Ranch being developed into a business district, Sierra Madre merchants are faced with competition from a completely new and modern shopping center.

Only a re-vitalized local business area can hope to meet such a threat so close to our own boundaries.

Every possible step should be taken to "pep up" the appearance and to improve the services of Sierra Madre's business area.

Approval of the proposed street lighting district seems to be a logical first step toward improving the overall appearance of our downtown area.

The project will include 35 ornamental steel light poles and lights six times as brilliant as those now in use. Improved lighting will beautify the entire area and encourage our businessmen to improve their merchandising techniques—two factors which are essential to an alert shopping center.

Million Suffer From Rheumatic Fever in U.S.

In the United States today, there are approximately one million persons suffering from rheumatic fever. About half of them are children.

Rheumatic fever seems to strike most frequently at those who suffer from malnutrition, exposure to damp and cold, extreme fatigue, and inadequate rest and sleep, according to the Los Angeles County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Best-known protective measures against the disease, therefore, include steps to build the body's defense against infection—with a well-balanced diet, fresh air, sunshine and sufficient rest—and the avoidance of fatigue, exposure, and minor illnesses.

We like, too, to have people who are going to build come into our yard to see the displays and samples of wood interiors, wallboards, plywoods, insulation, roofing, sash and doors and hardware.

On Monday, the first day of camp, a conducted tour of the NEWS printing office is planned.

Day Campers will travel to a broadcasting station Thursday to attend the telecasting at 12:30 of the KFL-TV show, "Ladies Day." Parents are being asked to provide transportation for this trip, Mr. McElfresh said.

Special activities on Friday will include a trip to the Griffith Park Zoo. Youngsters will eat their lunches at the park, then take part in supervised games.

The first Day Camp will end Friday night with a family campfire dinner, program, and game period. The evening's program will be presented by fathers of the "Y" Indian Guides. Dick Kirk will lead the campers and parents in group singing. Refreshments will be provided by the Sierra Madre Lions Club.

Mr. McElfresh said the City School has cooperated "wonderfully" by loaning more than a truck load of equipment for putting on the Day Camp. The Public Library also has loaned many books to be read aloud by counselors during after-lunch quiet periods.

"We still can use some more volunteer counselors or helpers, though," the recreation director said.

City Judge John C. Mead suspended $15 of the fine on condition that Mr. White obtain a license "within 10 days."

public use; 3. it would create a burden on the real estate in the area; and 4. charging the assessment to the lessor is not possible.

R. C. Lewis, president of the Bank of Sierra Madre and the man whose name heads the signees on the petition, pointed out that at present there are no assessments outstanding in the business district.

Harold Roberts, who earlier in the evening had entered a formal protest, withdrew his objection when he learned two or three of the signees he had challenged "actually are property owners in the area."

Mrs. Fergus opposed the plan because of what she called "very steep" costs to the property owner concerned with little benefit in return.

In answer to Mrs. Fergus, Councilman Herman Barter remarked that at present the rest of the town is helping to "carry your load" because approximately 11.2 per cent of all city street light costs now go to lights in the business area.

Rudolph Hartman of Hartman's Pharmacy registered "complete agreement" concerning feasibility of the project.

"It is an intangible, but quite a necessary project," he said.

Al E. Morgan, president of the Chamber of Commerce, informed the audience that he had learned from "a reliable source" that a 10-acre parcel of Upper Hastings land, just west of Machillinda, has been earmarked for immediate development as a business district—a shopping center which would be in direct competition to Sierra Madre's.

"With a block of new stores in which to shop, everyone will go there instead of in Sierra Madre," he said. "For that reason alone, we must do everything to pep up our downtown area."

T. W. Neale stated that five persons have been killed by autos in the business district. "Inadequate lights were at least a probable cause of several of these," Mr. Neale said.

Answering a question from Mrs. M. R. de Wright as to whether enough steel would be available—in view of the Korean war—to build the 35 light poles, Robert Green, Sierra Madre manager of the Southern California Edison Company, said:

"I have been assured, at present, enough poles can be obtained. How long the present supply will hold out, however, cannot be foreseen."

On motion of Councilman Noren Eaton, the matter was continued until the next meeting of the Council on Aug. 25.

'One Foot'
Play Enters
Fourth Week

Laughing its way into a fourth week hold over, with the blessings of playgoer, critic, and clergy alike, is Irving Phillips' heartwarming family comedy, "One Foot in Heaven." About a family, played by a real-life family, and aimed at family entertainment, the foot-light version of the best-selling novel has kept all comers alternating between hilarious laughter and pleasant reveries. Keeping its groove in the Drama Festival lineup is Lillian Hellman's "Montserrat," which currently is scheduled to follow "Summer and Smoke," next play at the Pasadena Playhouse.

Sport Center Now
'A Golfer's Mecca'

The miniature golf course and driving range of the Arcadia Sport Center, across from Santa Anita Race Track, fast is becoming a mecca for golfers of San Gabriel Valley.

For golfers in the family, there is a 35-tee driving range under the "brightest lights on earth," where golfers can test out their shots from driver to putter.

Recently added to the fun center was a tricky 18-hole miniature course, a snack bar, games, and other recreational facilities.

AUTO CLUB'S
TRIP OF THE WEEKScenic
FOREST LAKES

Nestled deep within the mountain regions of Angeles National Forest are three picturesque lake regions that beckon invitingly to motorists interested in getting away from the hustle and bustle of city life. The lakes—Hughes, Munz and Elizabeth—are situated well off the beaten path, thus serving as ideal settings for those who enjoy the luxury of complete relaxation amid peaceful surroundings.

● The course passes near historically-important Placerita Canyon (Lower photo). It was here in 1842, six years before James Marshall's epochal find at Coloma, that Francisco Lopez discovered California's first gold. The story goes that this initial strike was made at a spot under a giant tree now known as the Oak of the Golden Dream. Nearby, a plaque has been erected to commemorate the event.

● Elizabeth Lake Canyon is an excellent example of rugged mountain beauty. Further along, the scenery shifts to green fields and shade trees as the Hughes Lake section is approached.

● Top photo shows view of Munz Lake, another fine setting for family picnics. Large camping areas are provided around both Hughes and Munz lakes and such enjoyable activities as fishing, boating (center photo), hiking and horseback riding are available. From the wooded slopes and rugged canyons hereabouts, one may take in several inspiring views of the great Antelope Valley and Mojave Desert.

● Palmdale is centrally located in the rich Antelope Valley. About one-third of this narrow valley is now under cultivation, producing alfalfa, pears, barley, wheat and oats.

● Well worth a visit is the interesting sidetrail over U.S. 6, which traverses a geological wonderland of tilted rock formations along Mint Canyon. Here may be found the fabled Vasquez Rocks, a group of stony outcroppings said to have been the hideout of Tiburcio Vasquez, California outlaw.

● A fitting climax to this week's journey might include a leisurely tour through Pasadena's fine residential districts. The city enjoys a world-wide reputation as a health and recreation resort and contains some of California's most stately homes.

Witch Doctor
At Library

By ISABEL STRADLEY

WHITE WITCH DOCTOR, by Louise A. Stinetorf.

"Remember always to shake the snakes and scorpions out of your shoes in the morning, no matter how big a hurry you're in!"

These words were Ellen Burton's unceremonious introduction to life in the African jungle. WHITE WITCH DOCTOR is an amazing novel based on fact—the story of a sheltered spinster from a small American town who was sent to the Belgian Congo as a medical missionary.

Her only armor was a sense of humor, a knack for being able to pray in any emergency, no matter how terrifying, and a love of people that could not be limited by the color of skin.

She worked for a time at a mission station, then went further into the jungle. And there for a quarter of a century, alone among the natives, she was not only doctor, nurse and teacher, but also the hunter who provided fresh meat for the community!

The book is amusing, hair-raising, always warmly moving.

When Ellen Burton was retired after 25 years and sent home (the usual fate of aging missionaries) she left behind her in the jungle a hospital with many natives in training as nurses and midwives, and she had also founded many small schools.

Her affection for her black friends was always without condescension. Even the elusive pigmies at the end, when she was so weary and ill, came out of hiding to carry her to safety. Other new books at the library are:

Centennials Show To Relive History

Climaxing three years of centennials celebrations throughout the state, a huge pageant spectacle will be held in the world-famous Hollywood Bowl for five nights, beginning Sept. 8.

Previously set for two nights in the L. A. Coliseum, the pageant—"The California Story"—has been moved to the Hollywood Bowl and extended to five performances, with no admission charge, to assure a larger total attendance at this tribute to California's colorful history.

Shell of the Bowl will be removed so the parking lot and even the mountains to the rear can be used as a stage for gold-mining and other historic tableaux.

"The California Story," a two and one-half hour program, will be authentic in every detail that is presented, according to Centennials Commission spokesmen.

If you drive, don't drink; if you drink, don't drive. Alcohol and gasoline don't mix.

Open Daily to Midnight!

Fence Dispute Trial Fizzles; Case Dropped

A scheduled jury trial fizzled out Friday afternoon when the complaining witness, Mrs. Paula Goldstrom, 420 E. Highland, asked a dismissal of the case.

The trial was to have centered around a boundary dispute between Mrs. Goldstrom and her neighbors on the west, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Young, 406 E. Highland.

As complainant, Mrs. Goldstrom had charged the couple with trespassing on her property and trying to illegally move and injure her fence. The fence controversy was reported by one observer to involve a property line question of "only a fraction of an inch."

In asking dismissal of the case, Prosecuting Attorney "Mose" Howard explained to Presiding Judge John C. Mead that Mrs. Goldstrom felt perhaps she had been wrong in the case, and that there "possibly was an absence of malice."

Judge Mead accepted the motion for dismissal, then remarked to the crowded court room:

"I'm certainly glad to see all the jurors here anyway. We all have been inconvenienced by this case."

Horse Show Set For State Fair

With the finest show horses from many western states entered, the famed Horse Show at the California State Fair in Sacramento, Aug. 31 through Sept. 10, will top all previous equine productions.

Two new features have been added this year—the California Saddle Horse Breeders' Futurity and the famous six-pony hitch of the Curtiss Candy Company.

The horse show and racing are only two of the many fair attractions, which will include speed boat racing, a multitude of livestock, agricultural, industrial and other exhibits, a flower show, and an ice revue.

recreation or personal equipment.

Captain Sanford Ullman, commander of the company, said that the outfit's recreation fund right now is "zero."

"Without fighting men we would have no country at all," Mrs. de Wright said. "These boys had hoped to get an armory here to carry on their training during peacetime, but they didn't get it. Now that they are leaving, full support of this tribute to them is the least that can be expected of Sierra Madreans."

Mrs. de Wright asked women of the city to call her if they will be able to donate sandwiches, cakes and other things for the party. Her telephone number is CUster 5-4989. Money donations for the recreation fund may be left with the Red Cross; A. E. Morgan treasurer of the sponsoring committee; Francis Danielson, vice-chairman, or the Sierra Madre NEWS.

Members of the sponsoring Committee are:

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burns, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Don Jackson, Mrs. C. C. Ward, Mrs. Edward Clinton Young, Judge and Mrs. J. C. Mead, Mayor and Mrs. W. A. Kinney.

P. O. Boxes Quality Hit By Chamber

A letter of protest from the Chamber of Commerce was sent to Washington, D. C., last week, criticizing the "inferior quality" of lock boxes sent for installation at the new Post Office.

Addressed to Assistant Postmaster-General Walter Myers, the letter said Sierra Madre was "pleased with every detail of the new office except one—the lock boxes."

"In both design and workmanship, (they) are far below the standard of high quality set by other appointments of the new office. They are much inferior to boxes being installed at other offices in the vicinity."

Chamber President Al E. Morgan, signer of the letter, further stated:

"We believe that functionally, they will prove quite unsatisfactory, since the characters on the dials are very difficult to distinguish."

Last week, Postmaster Eddie D. Robertson sent a similar letter of protest to Washington, asking that an investigation be made.
